

Benson Wilson

Baritone

New Zealand-born Sāmoan baritone Benson Wilson is the winner of the prestigious 64th Kathleen Ferrier Award. That same year he was awarded the Most Outstanding Overseas Performer of the Royal Overseas League Competition, the Worshipful Company of Musicians Award, and was the 2018 winner of the Joan Sutherland and Richard Bonyngé Foundation Award and the People's Choice Award.

In 2020/21 Benson joined English National Opera as a Harewood Artist, opening the season as Schaunard La bohème for their Drive & Live production at Alexandra Palace. Further engagements last season were due to include his debut as Figaro Le nozze di Figaro for Queensland Opera (now postponed).

This season and beyond includes returning to ENO main stage to sing Schaunard and Guglielmo Così fan tutte and his house debut in the title role of Orpheus Orpheus and Eurydice for New Zealand Opera. He will also give recitals at the King's Lynn and Ludlow Song festivals and a concert with the BBC Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sakari Oramo.

Benson recently gave a recital tour of New Zealand at venues including Auckland Chamber Concert Hall and Hawkes Bay Opera House and UK recitals have included Brighton, Oxford Lieder and Leeds Lieder festivals, Wigmore Hall and St Martin in the Fields, with pianists Iain Burnside, Lucy Colquhoun, Ella O'Neill, James Baillieu and Joseph Middleton. He has appeared in concert with the Orchestra of Opera North, and for Auckland Opera Studio.

Previous operatic roles include Marullo Rigoletto for Glyndebourne on Tour, John Shears Paul Bunyan (ENO), Mirza Der Gesang der Zauberinsel at the Salzburger Festspiele as a 2019 Salzburg Young Singer, Count Almaviva Le nozze di Figaro (Bloomsbury Opera), Schabernack Le Grand Macabre with London Symphony Orchestra, and Demetrius A Midsummer Night's Dream as a scholar on the Guildhall School of Music & Drama Opera Course.

Benson regularly appears in concert in repertoire including Handel Messiah, Mozart Requiem, Faure Requiem, Duruflé Requiem and Brahms Ein deutsches Requiem, and in 2016 he joined the BBC Symphony Orchestra for a Total Immersion Concert featuring works by Richard Rodney Bennett.

Prior to relocating to the UK, he won New Zealand's premiere singing competition, the Lexus Song Quest, and graduated with a BMus from the University of Auckland. Benson is a former young artist of the Georg Solti Accademia di Bel Canto, the Samling Young Artist Programme, the International Vocal Arts Institute, New Zealand Opera School and the National Opera Studio in London.
